

Leadership Marshfield Alumnus of the Year

The Leadership Marshfield Alumnus of the Year Award was initiated by the Steering Committee and endorsed by the Leadership Council in 1999 to recognize a class graduate and current Leadership Marshfield Alumnus who has made a significant, positive impact on the Marshfield area.

Past winners of this award have been Kate (Kaz) Ferrel, Bette Adler, Donna Rozar, Heather Holden, Mary Fehrenbach, Thom Gerretsen, Sue Decker, Dale Marth, Todd Diedrich, Kathy Meidl, Brenda Dillenburg, Al Nystrom, Mary Blanchard, Peg Geegan, Dr. Lori Bents, Tammy Meissner, Paula Jero, Kim Vrana, Nick Arnoldy, Cathy Lotzer, Michelle Boernke, Melissa Barnes, Danielle Nystrom. This year's winner will be announced at MACCI's Annual Meeting on January 26, 2022, and will be asked to speak at the Leadership Marshfield graduation on April 21, 2022. Nominations must be submitted to the MACCI office by December 31, 2021.

Selection Criteria:

- Demonstration of true leadership qualities, both in their professional career and within the community.
- Involvement on community committees, boards or associations in leadership roles.
- Demonstration of qualities to accept the challenges of the community and offering solutions to those concerns.

2021 Leadership Marshfield Alumnus of the Year Award

Nominee's Name _____

Employer/CommunityAffiliation _____

Let me introduce you to my choice for the Leadership Marshfield Alumnus of the Year Award by describing how this individual fits the selected criteria. (Additional information for consideration may be attached.)

Nominated by: _____